

DEAR FAMILIES,

Great news! We're pleased to let you know that as of September 1, 2021 your child can receive tuition from the Denver Preschool Program (DPP) for the 2021-2022 school year.

Thanks to Denver voters, preschool tuition support is available to all families—regardless of income—who have a child who is 4-years-old by October 1 and lives within the City and County of Denver.

The typical child will receive $788, but the amount of tuition that DPP will pay on your behalf can range from $58 to $1,385 per month.

The amount of tuition support your family can receive is determined by:

- 1 Your household income
- 2 Your school's quality rating
- 3 How many hours your child attends

TO APPLY, SPEAK TO YOUR SCHOOL'S ADMINISTRATOR OR GO TO:

APPLY.DPP.ORG

To estimate in advance the amount of tuition support that you can receive using DPP's tuition calculator and to learn more about other available early learning resources, visit dpp.org.

Thank you,
The Denver Preschool Program Team

P.S. When you sign up, your school will also receive funding from DPP to pay for resources that improve its quality such as classroom materials and professional development opportunities for staff. It's a win-win situation for all!

The Denver Preschool Program makes quality preschool possible through a dedicated sales tax first approved by voters in 2006 and renewed in 2014. Through the 2018-2019 program year, DPP has provided nearly $123 million in tuition support to help more than 55,000 Denver children attend the preschool of their families' choice, establishing each child's foundation for lifelong learning and success.
